RESIDENTIAL LEASE – TERMS AND CONDITIONS (District of Columbia)

These Terms and Conditions are attached to and incorporated by reference into the Residential Lease - Term Sheet signed by Resident ("you") and Lessor ("us") with respect to your rental of the Premises identified on the Term Sheet. The Term Sheet, these Terms and Conditions, the Resident Handbook and Community Policies, the Move-In/Move-Out Inspection Form, and all Lease addenda or other agreements that may be referenced on the Term Sheet or attached hereto, make up the Lease. The party executing this Lease as the Lessor is Equity Residential Management, L.L.C., which is acting as the managing agent for the owner of the Community. Each person living in the Premises that is 18 years of age or older must sign the Lease as a resident. All others living in the Premises must be designated as occupants. Each person signing the Lease is jointly and severally liable for all of the various resident obligations under the Lease. That means that every individual resident, including all co-residents, is responsible for the entire rental amount and other obligations, even if, as roommates, you have made arrangements among yourselves to allocate the rent or other payments among yourselves.

1. Lease Term/Month-to-Month Tenancy: The term of this Lease is set forth in the Lease Term section of the Term Sheet. At the end of your Lease term, if you do not move out or, if you do not sign a renewal lease, your Lease will automatically renew on a month-to-month basis. If you stay in the Premises on a month-to-month basis following the term of the Lease, or you stay beyond your Lease end date in order to fulfill your notice requirement, you will, effective the day after your Lease term ends, pay the month-to-month rent amount included in the renewal offer we deliver to you. Once you become a month-to-month tenant, we reserve the right to increase the month-to-month rental rate upon 30 days' notice to you.

2. Notice to Vacate/Early Termination:

a. If you plan to move out of the Premises at any time during your Lease term, including the expiration date of your Lease, you must provide us with a written notice of your intent to vacate at least 60 days prior to your move-out date. Once you are in a month-to-month status, you must give 30 days' written notice prior to your move-out date. If you submit your notice to vacate and fail to move out on or before the notice date you provide to us, then, for each day you hold over, you will be charged holdover rent equal to two times your then-current per diem rental rate. If you fail to give the required notice and move out anyway, you will be charged insufficient notice rent for the number of days your notice is short. The insufficient notice rent shall be charged at the per diem rental rate that is in effect on your move-out date. If you move out without providing any notice at all, then, for the purposes of this paragraph, your move-out date will be considered to be your notice date. You acknowledge and understand that the purpose of this notice requirement is to provide us with adequate time to re-rent the Premises without interruption.

b. With certain exceptions that may be allowed by applicable law, you have no right to terminate your Lease prior to the end of your Lease term. If you terminate your tenancy early, you will be in default under the Lease, and you will be responsible for paying early termination rent at the per diem rental rate that is in effect on your move-out date until the earlier of (i) the end of your Lease term; or (ii) the date a new resident moves into the Premises. If your apartment is re-rented prior to the expiration of your lease term and the new resident's monthly apartment rent is less than your monthly apartment rent, then, for the remainder of your lease term, you will also be responsible for the difference between your monthly apartment rent and the new resident's monthly apartment rent.

c. If you move out within the last 30 days of your Lease term, you will remain responsible for the balance of your rent and other charges through the expiration date of your lease.

d. In all cases where you are charged early termination rent or insufficient notice rent, if a new resident moves into the Premises during the charge period, we will issue a credit to you for the number of days that the new resident was in possession of the Premises.

3. Move-Out Obligations: When you move out, you must remove all of your personal belongings and leave the Premises in substantially the same clean, undamaged, and ready-to-rent condition as existed when you took occupancy of the Premises, less ordinary wear and tear. You will be charged for replacement of any damaged or missing items, as well as all costs to clean or repair any portion of the Premises, carpeting, flooring, wall coverings, paint, counters, trim, window treatments, doors, windows, or appliances which are damaged, dirty, or unsanitary, and the removal of all trash and personal property from the Premises. Cleaning and repair of damage due to smoking of any kind or any damages or stains caused by pets, are not considered ordinary wear and tear. In order to avoid being charged for cleaning carpets in the Premises after you move out, you must have the carpets professionally cleaned, as documented by a receipt you provide to us. Having your carpets professionally cleaned, however, will not avoid liability for damage or permanent stains. You agree to return all keys, access cards and remotes to us to confirm you have vacated the Premises. If you fail to return these items, you agree that your move-out date will be the date we physically take possession of the premises.

4. Rent: You agree to pay the amount shown in the Total Monthly Rent section of the Term Sheet and all additional rent (described below), in advance and without demand, on or before the first day of each calendar month. All fees and charges related to your residency, including, but not limited to, late charges, returned item fees, parking and storage charges, and utility bills that are payable to us or to our utilities billing vendor, are additional rent. Total Monthly Rent and additional rent are, together, referred to in this Lease as rent and all rent is subject to an enforcement action if not received in a timely manner. All rent must be paid in U.S. dollars and we reserve the right to require that payments be made in one lump sum, even if there are multiple residents listed on the Lease. We strongly encourage residents to use on-line or electronic payment methods. Unless prohibited by law, we may elect to centralize the collection sites for non-electronic payments and/or require that all payments be made electronically. If we do so, we will notify you in writing of the requirement, and, in the case of centralized collections, the address to which you should send your payments, as well as the effective date for such change. If we designate an off-site receivables location, you agree that all rent and other payments directed to that location must be received at the designated location on or before the due date. We do not accept cash, third party personal checks, or checks without a preprinted name and address of the account holder. If you pay by personal check, you are authorizing us to scan the check and convert it into a one-time electronic debit from the bank account against which the check was written. Unless prohibited by law, we reserve the right to refuse payments by personal check, automatic debit or other form of electronic payment if, for example, you have submitted previous checks or other payments to us that have failed to clear the bank. We are not required to re-deposit a dishonored check.

5. Late Charges and Returned Item Fees: You acknowledge that if we do not receive your rent or other lease related charges on time, we will incur costs, the exact dollar amount of which is difficult or impracticable to determine. Such costs may include, among other things, lost use of funds, bank or other charges, costs incurred in connection with accounting for and attempting to collect late payments; collection expenses; and other administrative and accounting costs. As a result, if we do not receive your rent when it is due, we will assess late fees as described in the Late Fees section of the Term Sheet. Similarly, if any payment to us (electronic or otherwise) is returned or otherwise rejected by your financial institution for any reason, we will assess a returned item fee as described in the Returned Item Fees section of the Term Sheet, as well as all applicable late fees. The fees described in this paragraph are in addition to any other remedies we may have in the event of your default under the terms of this Lease. You agree that the late fee is a fair and reasonable estimate of actual expenses we may incur as a result of your failure to pay rent when due.

6. Application and Acceptance of Payments: Unless we are prohibited from doing so by law, we will apply the payments you make to us in the order of priority we determine, regardless of any notations that you make on checks, money orders or other forms of payment. We reserve the right to accept any amount less than the balance due at any given time and, if we do accept a lesser amount, such acceptance will not represent a waiver of any right we have to pursue you for the outstanding balance or possession of the Premises. If you are chronically late with your rent payments, we reserve the right to terminate this Lease.

7. Security Deposit: Upon signing this Lease, you have agreed to give us deposits as set forth in the Total Deposits section of the Term Sheet. These Total Deposits are not prepaid rent, but, rather are a good faith deposit for your fulfillment of your Lease obligations, as well as a contingency against damages to the Premises. The Total Deposits will be deposited in an interest bearing account in a financial institution in the District of Columbia established for the sole purpose of holding such deposits. We will pay interest on the Total Deposits as required by the law of the District of Columbia. You are not entitled to apply any part of your Total Deposits against rent or other Lease obligations during the time you are occupying the Premises, nor will we use any part of the Total Deposits during your Lease Term to offset charges incurred during such timeframe. Consistent with the requirements of state law, after you move out, we will inspect the condition of the Premises, and charge, against your Total Deposits, for any damages, beyond ordinary wear and tear, excessive cleaning or trash removal charges, as well as any outstanding balances you owe us. If any balance of the Total Deposits remains after applying all such charges, we will refund it to you within 45 days from the date you vacate the Premises. If the move-out charges and/or other unpaid amounts remaining on your resident account at the time you move out exceed the amount of the Total Deposits, you agree to pay us the difference. We reserve the right to charge pre-judgment interest on any balance owing after you move out. Such interest will begin to accrue when the balance, if any, shown on the Statement of Deposit Account we issue to you is not paid within 30 days following the date set forth on the Statement of Deposit Account. The interest charged on the outstanding balance will not exceed the rate of 18% per annum or the highest rate allowed by law, whichever is less, and will be reflected on the Statement of Deposit Account that will be issued to you after you move out. We may inspect the Premises within three days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) before or after the termination of your tenancy. If we conduct the inspection, we will notify you in writing of the time and date of the inspection at least ten days prior to the scheduled inspection. If there are multiple co-residents on this Lease, you agree that, at the time you provide notice to move out, you will (i) provide a forwarding address to us for receipt of the Statement of Deposit Account; and (ii) select one co-resident, who resides at the forwarding address, to receive the refund of any Total Deposits paid. You may also have the opportunity, upon providing an account number to us, to select to have your refund, if any, directly deposited into the bank account of the selected co-resident. If you fail to provide us with a forwarding address and co-resident designation, we will, within the timeframe required by state law, (i) make the refund check payable to all residents listed in the Lease, and (ii) mail the refund check to the address provided or, if no forwarding address is provided, we will mail the refund check to the Premises address for forwarding by the U.S. Postal Service.

8. One-time Fees: If you have paid other fees and charges as set forth in the Total Other Fees and Charges section of the Term Sheet, you acknowledge and understand that such other fees and charges are not refundable, are not considered to be a security deposit or part of the Total Deposits, and will not be applied as a credit toward any amounts owed by you at the time you move out.

9. Lease Concessions: If you received a Lease concession, you must fulfill all of your obligations under this Lease for the entire Lease term. Any concession that is designated on the Term Sheet as a one-time or upfront concession must be applied first toward your rent during the first month of the initial term and to consecutive months thereafter until the balance of the concession credit reaches zero. If this Lease is terminated early, you must repay a prorata portion of the total Lease concessions you received based on the number of days remaining in your Lease term after you move out. If the concession shown on the Term Sheet is designated as a recurring concession and the Lease is terminated early, the early termination rent that will be charged after you move-out will not include the deduction for the recurring concession.

10. Employees of Lessor: If you are an employee of Lessor or a co-resident living with an employee of Lessor, you acknowledge and agree that the rent concession identified on the Term Sheet is provided to the employee as a condition of employment. If the value of the rent discount exceeds 20% of the monthly rent, the amount that is in excess of 20% will be included in your taxable income and you will be required to pay all applicable taxes on that amount. You also agree to pay your rent and other charges electronically each month via one of the following: (i) the one-time payment option on the resident portal; or (ii) Automatic Debit Authorization; or (iii) other electronic payment process implemented by Lessor. If you do not have a checking account, you may pay by money order or cashier's check given directly to the Community's management office. Under no circumstances are you to rent space in the Premises to occupants on a short-term basis and you are specifically prohibited from advertising and leasing the Premises through such sites as Airbnb, craigslist, Expedia, Hotels.com, or any other similar locator sites. If you breach the Lease for any reason, we may, in addition to our right to pursue remedies under the Lease for breach of Lease, terminate the rent concession and require you to pay the Total Monthly Rent set forth on the Term Sheet without the employee concession. If the employee's employment is terminated for any reason, your tenancy will terminate on the seventh day following the last day of employment. Unless we enter into a new Lease with you or consent in writing to allow you to remain in the Premises for a specified period of time, which is in our sole discretion, you agree to vacate the Premises by this date. We have no obligation to enter into a new lease with you or to allow you to remain in the Premises beyond this timeframe. If we mutually agree to continue your residency, you must sign a new lease at a rate that is compliant with then-current pricing guidelines for non-employees and you must also make all deposits customarily collected from other residents at the Community, prior to the expiration of your tenancy (seven days). If you continue to occupy the Premises beyond the seven day period or the agreed upon vacate date, whichever is applicable, without having signed a new lease and paying all deposits, you will be considered a "holdover" resident, as defined in this Lease and will be subject to the terms and conditions relating to such holding over. Unless you have signed a new lease, no holding over by you or payments of money by you to Lessor shall be construed to extend the Lease term or prevent us from recovering possession of the Premises. You understand and agree that the obligations identified in the Arbitration Policy and Agreement to submit certain types of employment-related disputes to binding arbitration, do not apply to any dispute related to your tenancy or this Lease.

11. Failure to Pay Deposits, Other Fees and Charges and First Month's Rent: If you fail to pay any deposits, other fees and charges and the first month's rent (or a prorated amount if the first month is a partial month) prior to moving in, you will be in default under the Lease and we can refuse to give you possession of the Premises until you pay such amounts.

12. Delay in Delivery of Possession: You are responsible for paying rent effective with the Commencement Date shown in the Lease Term section of the Term Sheet. If we are unable to give you possession of the Premises on the Commencement Date, we will abate the rent until we are able to do so. You agree that you will not seek reimbursement from us for any cost incurred by the delay of possession, including, but not limited to, storage or temporary lodging. Subject to applicable law, if we fail to deliver the Premises to you within 30 days from the date promised, either you or we may terminate the Lease by providing written notice to the other. Requirements for us to make repairs or clean the Premises that do not affect your ability to occupy them will not constitute a delay or entitle you to a rent abatement. If we are unable to deliver the Premises but offer you comparable accommodations at no additional cost, you will not be entitled to a rent abatement.

13. Rental Application and Resident Information Updates: You have provided certain information in your Application for Rental that we have relied on in connection with renting the Premises to you. You agree to promptly notify us if any of the information you provided changes. If any of the information you provided to us on your Application or in any subsequent updates is materially false, incomplete or misleading, or if you fail to notify us of any change or if you fail to update your information, you will be in default of your obligations under this Lease.

14. Disclosure of Information: To the extent permitted by applicable law, we may provide information about you, your co-residents, or any of your occupants to third parties such as law enforcement personnel, future landlords, mortgagees, attorneys, collection agencies, and consumer reporting agencies for law-enforcement, governmental, credit, rent payment history, or other business purposes. If we provide such information to third parties at your request, we reserve the right to charge an administrative fee for doing so. If you and your co-residents have a guarantor, we may, without notifying you, provide information to the guarantor.

15. Utilities and Utility Cost Adjustments During the Lease Term: You are responsible for paying for all of the utilities identified on the Term Sheet that are checked, and any utilities that we have not specifically agreed to pay. In some cases, the utility service will be provided to you by the utility company and you will pay the utility company directly. In other cases, your utility bill may be calculated based on a submeter reading, an allocation method, or a flat fee (as more fully described in the Utilities Addendum attached to this Lease), in which case you will receive a bill for such utilities from our billing vendor and you will either pay us directly or send your payments to our billing vendor. The Utilities section of the Term Sheet identifies which utility bills are to be billed by and paid directly to the utility company and which utility bills are to be billed by our billing vendor and either paid to us directly or, in some cases, sent to our billing vendor. Amounts due for utility services that are billed by our billing vendor are considered additional rent, irrespective of whether you pay us directly or whether our billing vendor collects such amounts on our behalf. In all cases, your failure to pay the utilities in full when due shall be considered a default under the Lease. You will not allow utilities that are in your name to be disconnected for non-payment or any other reason. If you do not connect the utilities as of your Lease start date or, if you disconnect the utilities early before moving out, and the utilities remain in our name during such timeframes, we will bill you for the utility charges incurred for the days you were in possession of or living in the Premises, along with an administrative fee of $50.00 for each utility bill we process on your behalf. You acknowledge that if the utilities remain in our name, we will incur costs, the exact dollar amount of which is difficult or impracticable to determine. Such costs may include, among other things, lost use of funds, bank or other charges, costs incurred in connection with paying, accounting for and attempting to collect utility payments; collection expenses; and other administrative and accounting costs. Because many utilities have long billing cycles, we may not have the actual utility bill in hand at the time we process your move out charges. In that circumstance, we reserve the right to estimate the utility charges for you based on typical or average consumption. We make no representation or warranty with respect to the amount of any estimated or actual utility costs associated with the provision of utility services to the Premises or the Community. To the extent we make a request of you in connection with any analysis of overall utility consumption at the Community, you authorize us, as your agent, to request and receive copies of your utility billing records directly from the utility provider. You acknowledge that we cannot be held responsible for any outages, interruptions or fluctuations in utility service that are provided to the Premises, and that you have no right to claim constructive eviction or to receive any offset or reduction of rent or diminished rental value of the Premises as a result of any such outages, interruptions, or fluctuations.

16. Right to Enter: Subject to notice requirements imposed by applicable law, we and our employees and agents may enter the Premises during reasonable hours for any lawful purpose, including but not limited to inspections, maintenance, repairs and pest control procedures. We also reserve the right to enter the Premises at any time in the event of an emergency, to check for abandonment, or to abate a nuisance. If you submit a service request to us, such request for service will constitute your permission for us to enter the Premises to do the requested work. You authorize us, in the event of your death or incapacity, to grant access to the Premises and the contents therein to the individual named in the emergency contact section of your Application for Rental or otherwise named by you in connection with updating your resident information. Once we grant access to such person, he/she may remove all personal property from the Premises and dispose of it in accordance with applicable law. You hereby release and discharge us from any liability, claim, or damages arising out of or in connection with our granting such access to the person you named. Assuming you have submitted a notice to vacate to us, we may, during the last 30 days of your tenancy and without advance notice to you, show the Premises to prospective new residents during normal business hours. If it is necessary for you to temporarily move out in order for us to exterminate or for other reasons, you agree to do so upon at least seven days' notice or on shorter notice as may be reasonable under the circumstances. If you are forced to temporarily move out for more than one day because of a duty, condition or event that is our responsibility under this Lease or by law and, if we do not make substitute accommodations available to you, we will abate your Total Monthly Rent for the period of time you are unable to occupy the Premises.

17. Right to Exclude: We reserve the right to exclude from the Community you and any of your occupants or guests who violate this Lease, any of the Community's policies, or the law. We also reserve the right to exclude anyone who disturbs other residents or our employees and agents, as well as anyone we reasonably believe represents a potential threat to other residents or to our employees and agents. We may also exclude from the Community any person who refuses to show photo identification to us or to identify himself or herself as a resident, occupant or guest. We may deny you or any person access to the Premises, including by changing the locks, if any court or legal order restrains or bars you or such person from the Premises.

18. Liens or Sales by Lessor: This Lease is subject and subordinate to all present or future ground or underlying leases, loans, mortgages, deeds to secure debt or deeds of trust affecting the Premises and the Community which we or any subsequent owner of the Community may enter into. You hereby appoint us as attorney-in-fact to execute and deliver any and all necessary documents to evidence such subordination of the Lease. Foreclosure of any mortgage or any sale of the Community will not constitute a constructive eviction and, in the event of any such action, you will continue to pay your rent and perform your obligations under this Lease. Upon any foreclosure or sale, we will be released from all obligations under this Lease that accrue after the date of the foreclosure or sale and you will look solely to the then-current owner for the performance of Lessor's duties.

19. Criminal Activity: You agree that neither you, nor any of your occupants or guests will (i) engage in any criminal activity of any kind, including, without limitation, drug related criminal activity, prostitution or criminal street gang activity, on or near the Community, (ii) engage in any act intended to facilitate such criminal activity, (iii) use or permit the Premises to be used for, or to facilitate, any criminal activity, or (iv) engage in any acts of violence or intimidation or any threats of violence, verbal or otherwise, including, but not limited to, the discharge or brandishing of firearms or other weapons, on or near the Community or otherwise. For purposes of this section, "drug related criminal activity" includes, but is not limited to, the use of or the manufacture, sale, distribution, dispensation or possession with intent to manufacture, sell distribute, or dispense, marijuana or any other Controlled or Counterfeit Substance, as defined in the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 802), as amended from time to time. One or more violations of the provisions of this paragraph will be considered a breach of the Lease and good cause for the immediate termination of your tenancy and your eviction from the Premises. Unless otherwise provided by law, proof of a violation of this paragraph shall not require criminal conviction, but may be based on our reasonable suspicion and a preponderance of the evidence. In addition, if you or any of your occupants have engaged in any criminal activity during the Lease term or otherwise, we may take action to terminate the Lease and pursue eviction-related remedies.

20. Use and Occupancy: The Premises are to be occupied and used solely as a private residence and by only those persons identified on the Term Sheet as residents and occupants. Conducting any kind of business in the Premises, or anywhere in the Community, is prohibited. However, a lawful business conducted "at home" by computer, mail or telephone is permissible if customers, clients, patients or other business associates do not come to the Premises for business purposes. The number of people living in the Premises is subject to applicable local occupancy standards. Only those residents and occupants identified on the Term Sheet, and, subject to the Community's occupancy standards, children born or adopted during the Lease term, may occupy the Premises without our prior written consent. If someone stays with you for more than 15 days (consecutive or otherwise) in any one month, we will consider such person to be an unauthorized occupant and, in order to allow such person to continue residing in the Premises, we must consent. If the person is age 18 or older, we may require him/her to complete an Application for Rental and pay an application fee. If we consent to such person's occupancy in the Premises, we also require that such person, unless he/she is a full-time student residing with a parent or guardian, be named on the Lease as resident. You acknowledge that we may require that any additional co-residents be screened through our credit and criminal screening process. You understand, however, that some individuals, guests, occupants, etc., who stay at the Community may not have gone through this process. All co-residents who are added as residents to the Lease are accepting the Premises in as-is condition and are agreeing to be jointly and severally liable for the condition of the Premises. You are responsible for your conduct, as well as the conduct of your occupants and guests. You, your occupants and all guests will: (i) show due consideration for neighbors and not interfere with, disturb or threaten the rights, comfort, health, safety, convenience, quiet enjoyment and use of the Community by us, other residents and occupants and any of their guests, agents or invitees; (ii) not engage in abusive, threatening or harassing conduct toward us or any employees, agents or representatives or unreasonably interfere with our management of the Community; (iii) exercise reasonable care in the use of the Premises and maintain the Premises in a clean, safe and undamaged condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted; (iv) comply with all of the policies and procedures contained in the Resident Handbook and Community Policies we delivered to you via My.EquityApartments.com or otherwise; and (v) comply with federal, state and local laws, regulations, statutes and ordinances which are applicable to the Premises and your tenancy. We reserve the right to be the sole judge of acceptable conduct and to determine the appropriate action necessary to deal with unacceptable conduct, including, but not limited to taking action to terminate the Lease and to pursue eviction-related remedies.

21. Restrictions on Assignment and Subletting/Prohibition Against Short-Term Rentals:

a. You may not assign this Lease or sublet the Premises without our prior written consent. If we do consent to any assignment or sublease, you will remain fully responsible and liable for the payment of the rent throughout the remainder of the Lease term.

b. The Premises are not to be used or occupied as a hotel or for any other transient use. Under no circumstances are you to rent space in the Premises to occupants on a short-term basis (for a period of time less than 30 days), or for any short-term occupancy that may be governed by or prohibited by state or local laws, including, but not limited to, those applicable to transient housing, code violations or hotel taxes, unless you receive consent from us. Unless you are given permission by us, you are specifically prohibited from advertising the Premises for rental on sites such as Airbnb, craigslist, Expedia, Hotels.com or any other similar locator sites, regardless of whether the purpose of such advertisement is for short term or transient occupants or for long term rental. Should we become aware of any violation of these short-term stay provisions or incur any loss as a result of your violation of this provision, including but not limited to, any fines or fees assessed against us by any federal, state or local authority, or any loss in business revenue, you will indemnify us and assume full responsibility for any and all such losses that we incur.

22. Repair and Maintenance: You confirm that you have inspected the Premises, found them in a clean, rentable, and undamaged condition (other than items listed in the Move-In/Move-Out Inspection Form that you completed or will complete), and that you accept the Premises in "as is" condition. If any part of the Premises is in need of maintenance or repair, you agree to notify us immediately. Damages and defects not itemized will be presumed to have first occurred during your occupancy of the Premises. You understand that you are responsible for keeping the Premises in a clean, sanitary and undamaged condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted. You are responsible for properly performing routine cleaning of all interior portions of the Premises. If you fail to keep the Premises clean (including, but not limited to eliminating dirt, filth, scum, grease, oil, mud, scuffs, holes, gouges, burns, stains, tears, cuts, rips, fleas, pests, foul scents or odors (including those relating to smoking), surface mold on caulking at the sinks, tub, shower and other locations, and other conditions which could have been avoided by careful use and routine cleaning), or if you, your occupants or any animals cause damage to the Premises in excess of ordinary wear and tear, you will be responsible for the costs to clean and/or repair such damage. Any such charges incurred during the Lease term will be considered additional rent. Furthermore, you and your occupants are responsible for maintaining the Premises in a clean and sanitary condition, free of garbage and rubbish and in a condition that does not cause or contribute to a pest or rodent infestation.

23. Fair Housing Accommodations/Modifications: We are firmly committed to the principles of Fair Housing. If you or any person residing in the Premises, as a result of a disability, requires accommodations to our rules, policies, practices or services, or a physical modification to the Premises and/or the common areas of the Community in order to provide you or your occupants with equal opportunity to use and enjoy the Premises, you will notify us. If you require physical modifications to the Premises, we may require you to enter into a modification agreement identifying the modifications to be made and any restoration obligations you may have.

a. If you become an active duty member of the United States Armed Forces during the Lease term, then, pursuant to the provisions of the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act ("SCRA") and other applicable laws, you may be released from your obligations under the Lease, without penalty, so long as you: (i) provide a copy of your official orders; (ii) provide at least 30 days' prior written notice of your anticipated move-out date; (iii) pay all outstanding balances and rent through your move-out date; and (iv) make satisfactory arrangements to pay all costs incurred by us to repair the damages caused by you, your occupants or guests, and pets, consistent with the Security Deposit paragraph above.

b. If you are an active duty member of the United States Armed Forces at the time you are signing this Lease, you affirm that the Lease end date does not extend beyond your anticipated discharge, retirement or release from the United States Armed Forces. Pursuant to the provisions of the SCRA and other applicable laws, you may be released from your obligations under the Lease, without penalty, so long as you: (i) provide a copy of your official permanent change-of-station orders or your official orders to deploy for a period of not less than 90 days; (ii) provide at least 30 days' written notice of your anticipated move-out date; (iii) pay all outstanding balances and rent through your move-out date; and (iv) make satisfactory arrangements to pay all costs incurred by us to repair the damages caused by you, your occupants or guests, and pets, consistent with the provisions of the Security Deposit paragraph above.

c. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Lease Concessions paragraph above, if you are exercising your right to terminate the Lease pursuant to the SCRA and this Military Clause paragraph, you will not be required to repay any portion of Lease concessions set forth on the Term Sheet. The release of any resident under this provision will not release any other resident or roommate unless the other resident is your spouse or dependent, as defined under the SCRA.

25. Resident Insurance. We strongly recommend that you secure a renters insurance policy covering your personal belongings, which also includes personal liability insurance covering your actions. Unless there is a prohibition imposed by affordability covenants or other restrictions applicable to the Premises, we require all residents to maintain a policy of liability insurance issued by an authorized insurance company that provides limits of liability in an amount of at least $100,000 per occurrence. If the Term Sheet indicates that Renter's Insurance is required, you must furnish proof of insurance to us on or before the commencement date of the Lease and, assuming you enter into renewal leases with us, you must continue to provide evidence of coverage for all subsequent renewal terms. You can obtain such insurance through Residential Insurance Agency, LLC or through the insurance agent of your choice. If you select an insurance company other than Residential Insurance Agency, LLC, you must name the Community as an Interested Party under your policy. Except where prohibited by law, if you fail to obtain and maintain liability insurance as required by this paragraph, you will be in violation of your lease obligations. In such event, we will send a written notice to you demanding that you cure the violation by procuring the insurance and supplying evidence of coverage to us. If you fail to supply evidence of such insurance to us on or before the date set forth in your notice, we reserve the right to procure liability only insurance coverage on your behalf, and to charge you for the amount of the premium paid to the insurance company, not to exceed $150.00 per year, along with an administrative fee of $40.00. You agree that this administrative fee is a liquidated damages provision and that such amount is a fair and reasonable estimate of the administrative costs we will incur as a result of procuring the liability insurance coverage for you. The premium payment made by us on your behalf, and the administrative fee we charge to procure the insurance for you, will be considered additional rent. If you fail to pay for the liability insurance and/or you allow the expiration or cancellation of any liability insurance policy during your tenancy, without substitute insurance being put in place, this will be considered a default under the Lease.

26. Corporate Units: If the name in the Resident section of the Term Sheet is a company or business (and not an individual person), then the company assumes all responsibility for damage to the Premises and any loss incurred by us or any third party that is caused by any person living in the Premises. The company also agrees to indemnify us for all claims, damages, losses and expenses related in any way to the occupancy of the Premises. The company agrees to identify all persons living in the Premises and to provide written authorization to us to release keys, key cards, and/or access cards to such occupants. The company agrees to maintain, at its sole cost and expense, throughout the term of the Lease and any subsequent renewal terms, the following insurance: Commercial General Liability insurance on a form at least as broad as Insurance Services Office ("ISO") Commercial General Liability Coverage "occurrence" form CG 00 01 0196 or another ISO Commercial General Liability "occurrence" form providing equivalent coverage, providing broad form comprehensive general liability coverage, blanket contractual liability coverage, coverage for bodily injury (including death), property damage (including loss of use thereof), products and completed operations with an authorized insurance company with a rating of A X in a minimum amount of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) per occurrence. The company must be named the insured and the company shall name the owner of the property, ERP Operating Limited Partnership, Equity Residential, Equity Residential Management, L.L.C., and their affiliates and agents (collectively, the "Lessor Entities") as additional insureds under the required policy. In the alternative, the company may purchase renters liability insurance for the Premises from an insurance company of company's choosing or through the program made available to residents at the Community through Residential Insurance Agency, LLC. If company elects to purchase such renters liability insurance through a company other than Residential Insurance Agency, LLC, the company must name the Community as an Interested Party under the policy. In any event, the company must, on or before the commencement date of the lease, deliver to us a certificate of insurance evidencing the coverage provided, and provide replacement certificates fifteen (15) days prior to the expiration of any required coverage. Except where prohibited by law, if the company fails to obtain and maintain the insurance as required by this paragraph, the company will be in violation of the Lease. In such event, we will send a written notice to the company demanding that it cure the violation by procuring the insurance and supplying evidence of coverage to us. If the company fails to supply evidence of such insurance to us on or before the date set forth in our notice, we may procure such insurance on the company's behalf and charge the company for the amount of the premium paid to the insurance company, not to exceed $150.00 per year, along with an administrative fee of $40.00. The company agrees that this administrative fee is a liquidated damages provision and that such amount is a fair and reasonable estimate of the administrative costs we will incur as a result of procuring the liability insurance coverage for the company. The premium payment made by us on the company's behalf, and the administrative fee we charge to procure the insurance for the company, will be considered additional rent. If the company fails to pay for the liability insurance and/or the company allows the expiration or cancellation of any liability insurance policy during the company's tenancy, without substitute insurance being put in place, this will be considered a default under the Lease.

27. Default Remedies: If you fail to perform any of your obligations under this Lease, we may exercise all of our rights under this Lease, at law or in equity. This may include giving you notice to correct or cure such default, taking action to recover possession of the Premises via the eviction process or otherwise, and/or terminating the Lease, all in accordance with applicable law. In addition, we can recover from you all damages, costs and expenses, including, among other things, damage to the Premises, cleaning and trash removal charges, delinquent Total Monthly Rent and additional rent (described in the Rent paragraph above) such as utilities, late fees, and returned item fees. If you terminate your tenancy early, skip or are evicted, we can also recover early termination rent consistent with the provisions set forth in the Notice to Vacate/Early Termination paragraph above. In cases where the default is due to non-payment of rent, you hereby expressly waive the right to receive from us a 30 day notice of such payment-related lease violation, and the Lease is hereby terminated. If you terminate your tenancy early, skip or are evicted, you must also repay us a portion of the concessions you received as described in the Lease Concessions paragraph above. In all cases, we reserve the right to report your payment history, outstanding balances, returned item fees, late fees, defaults, and other payment-related activity to consumer reporting agencies who track such information.

28. Abandoned Property: You understand that if you leave personal property in the Premises after you move-out or if you put your property in areas of the Community that are not designated for your use, we can determine that such property has been abandoned and we can take steps to remove or dispose of the property consistent with applicable laws. You agree that the value of any personal property you leave in the Premises after you move out has a value of $0.00.

29. Notices: Except as otherwise provided by law, all notices that we provide to you will be considered delivered when we put them in the mail, personally deliver them to the premises, or send them via email. All notices from you will be considered delivered when you put them in the mail or personally deliver them to the management office during normal business hours. By providing us with your e-mail address and cell phone number, you agree that we may communicate with you from time to time via e-mail, telephone calls and/or text messages (message and data rates may apply). By entering into this Lease, you expressly authorize us to contact you in such manners. If you wish to opt out of receiving e-mail communications, please unsubscribe using the link at the bottom of the emails. If you wish to opt out of receiving text messages, please follow the instructions at the end of the text. If you wish to opt out of receiving calls to your cell phone, please make that election by notifying the management office. The person designated as the on-site manager for the Community is the person authorized to act on our behalf in connection with this Lease. More formal notices, including service of process, can also be made by serving our registered service agent. In addition to U.S. mail and personal delivery options, lease renewal offers may be delivered to you via e-mail, text message and/or via a link to our resident website, My.EquityApartments.com.

30. Liability: To the maximum extent permitted by law, you agree that you will look solely to the owner's interest in the Community for the recovery of any judgment against us and that the owner, the management company, and any of their related and affiliated entities (and any of their officers, directors, trustees, employees, partners, shareholders, insurers, agents and representatives) will never be personally liable for such judgment. Except to the extent prohibited by law, we will not be liable for any damage, loss or injury to persons or property occurring in the Premises or in other areas of the Community. To the fullest extent permitted by law, you agree to hold us harmless and to indemnify us from any such liability or claim.

31. Fire and Casualty: If the Premises are damaged due to fire, explosion, casualty or any other health/safety issue which is not a result of your negligence or intentional conduct (or the negligence or intentional conduct of any person living in the Premises or any guest of such person), we may elect, in our sole discretion, to repair or re-build the Premises. Rent shall remain due and owing unless we, in our sole discretion, determine that the Premises or the building is uninhabitable. No penalty shall accrue against us for any reasonable delay in repairing the Premises by reason of adjustment of insurance proceeds, labor disputes, or any other cause beyond our reasonable control. If you are unable to live in the Premises while we conduct the repairs, your rent will be abated during the timeframe the repairs are being conducted. However, if we provide alternative accommodations at our expense during such repair, the rent will not be abated. Finally, if the damage to the Premises is caused by your negligence or intentional conduct (or the negligence or intentional conduct of any person living in the Premises or any agent or guest), the rent for the Premises will not be abated, you will be responsible for paying rent on the Premises and for any costs we incur to repair the damage, and we will not provide alternative accommodations to you. If we elect to not repair the Premises or if the Premises are substantially or totally destroyed, we may elect to terminate this Lease.

32. Waivers: Our failure to insist upon strict compliance with the terms of this Lease or any delay by us in enforcing your obligations under the Lease will not constitute a waiver of our right to act on other breaches or to make demands on you to perform. Your obligation to pay rent during the Lease term or during your continued occupancy of the Premises will continue notwithstanding our issuance of any notice, demand for possession, notice of termination of tenancy, institution of any action or forcible detainer, or any other act which might result in the termination of your right to live in the Premises. Unless otherwise restricted by applicable law, our acceptance of rent from you after it falls due or after knowledge of your breach of any obligations under this Lease is not a waiver of our rights under this Lease nor is it an election to not proceed under any provision of this Lease or the law.

33. Severability: If any provision of this Lease is determined to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws which are in effect during the Lease term, then, we will substitute similar provisions or language that will make such clause or provision legal, valid, and enforceable. If substitute provisions are not available, then the illegal or unenforceable provision shall be removed from the Lease, but the remaining provisions in the Lease shall remain intact.

34. [Intentionally Omitted]

35. Laws Governing this Lease/Venue: This Lease shall be governed by the laws of the state in which the Community is located, and all legal action arising from this Lease shall be tried in the county where the Community is located.

36. Written Agreement: This Lease, which includes the Term Sheet, these Terms and Conditions, the Resident Handbook and Community Policies, the Move-In/Move-Out Inspection Form, and all Lease addenda or other agreements that may be referenced on the Term Sheet or attached hereto, contains our entire agreement. We both acknowledge that there are no oral understandings between us, and neither of us have relied on any representations, express or implied, that are not contained in this Lease.

37. Joint and Several Liability: Each resident, including all co-residents, is jointly and severally liable for each and every provision of this Lease.

38. General: You confirm that you are of legal age to enter into a binding Lease for lodging.

UTILITIES ADDENDUM

This Utilities Addendum ("Addendum") is dated effective as of the date on the Residential Lease - Term Sheet (the "Term Sheet") to which this Addendum is attached and made a part of (the "Lease") by and between Lessor and Resident for the Premises at the Community identified in the Lease.

This Addendum provides additional information regarding those utilities for which the Community receives and pays the total utility bill (or bills) for the Community, and for which you either pay us or, in some cases, pay our billing vendor on our behalf. As noted in the Utilities section of the Term Sheet and the Utilities paragraph of the Terms and Conditions, the methods used to determine your portion of the costs for these utilities may be based on a submeter reading, an allocation method, or a flat fee, as described below. The Community's total cost for these utilities may include additional fees or charges imposed by the utility company or municipality providing the service to the Community, and/or additional costs associated with the service, including costs to maintain and operate the utilities systems, but not billed by the local utility company. In these cases, such additional fees or costs may also be included in the bill you receive from our billing vendor. In some instances, these additional charges may be itemized separately on the bill you receive from our billing vendor. You should also be advised that, in most cases, the Community's bills for these utilities will include the cost to provide these utility services in the common areas of the Community, which may include swimming pools, lawns and landscaped areas. As a result, your portion of such utility bills may include a portion of the cost to provide such utility services in the common areas.

1. If your Term Sheet indicates that a utility bill is based on a submeter reading, the reading will be used along with the Community's most recent actual bill(s) for the utility to calculate your bill by either (i) dividing the Community's cost for the utility by the usage shown on the meters for all apartments in the Community and multiplying that number by the usage shown on your meter; or (ii) dividing the Community's bill for the utility by the total usage from the master meter(s) for the Community and multiplying that number by the usage shown on your meter; or (iii) using the actual rate shown on the Community's bill for the utility multiplied by the usage shown on your meter. If the utility company charges us a fixed fee or base charge for each apartment, we will pass that charge through to you. If the Premises has a submeter in place, you will allow us and our vendors to access the Premises from time to time to read the submeter or perform repairs. You also agree that you will not tamper with, adjust, or disconnect any submeter or other measuring device that is installed in the Premises. If we are unable to read the submeter, your charges may be estimated based on prior usage or an average consumption rate.
2. If your Term Sheet indicates that a utility is allocated based on square footage, your bill will be calculated by dividing the Community's most recent actual bill(s) for the utility by the total square footage of the occupied apartments at the Community, multiplying that amount by the square footage of the Premises, and prorating that amount based on the number of days you had possession of the Premises during the billing period.
3. If your Term Sheet indicates that a utility is allocated based on number of occupants, your bill will be calculated by dividing the Community's most recent actual bill(s) for the utility by the total number of occupants at the Community, multiplying that amount by the number of occupants in your Premises, and prorating that amount based on the number of days you had possession of the Premises during the billing period. Rather than using the actual number of occupants for this calculation, we may elect to use a ratio occupancy that results in multiple occupants being counted on a less than a "one-for-one" basis. By way of example, ratio occupancy might allow for one person in an apartment to count as one person in the allocation formula while two persons in an apartment may count as only 1.6 persons in the allocation formula.
4. If your Term Sheet indicates that a utility is allocated based on a combination of square footage and number of occupants, your bill will be calculated by dividing the Community's most recent actual bill(s) for the utility, applying the square footage formula described in paragraph 2 above to a portion of the cost, applying the occupancy formula described in paragraph 3 above to the remainder of the cost, and adding the two results together.
5. If your Term Sheet indicates that a utility is allocated equally among the number of occupied apartments at the Community (regardless of square footage or number of occupants), then all occupied apartments at the Community will pay the same charge in any given month, and your bill will be calculated (i) by dividing the Community's most recent actual bill(s) for the utility by the total number of occupied apartments in the Community during the billing period and prorating that amount based on the number of days you had possession of the Premises during the billing period; or (ii) by dividing the Community's anticipated average utility costs, adjusted from time to time when our costs change significantly, by the total number of occupied apartments in the Community, prorated based on the number of days you had possession of the Premises during the billing period. Anticipated utility costs in (ii) above may include expected increases in costs so as to keep your bill consistent where the Community's actual costs vary significantly from month to month.

6. If your Term Sheet indicates that a utility charge is based on a flat monthly charge, then your charge for such utility will be in an amount we communicate to you at Lease signing, and will either be reflected in the Total Monthly Rent section of the Term Sheet.
7. Our billing vendor may charge us for account set-up fees, meter maintenance fees, monthly billing fees, and other fees and charges in connection with their billing services. If the billing vendor charges such fees, the billing vendor will include the fees on your bill and you will reimburse us for those amounts along with your payment to us for the utility charges.
8. The utility charges for the last billing period that you occupy the Premises will not be based on the Community's most recent actual bill for the utility but will, instead, be estimated by calculating the average of at least three months' of charges for the utility (as allocated to the Premises), dividing that average by the number of days in the billing period, and then multiplying that per diem charge by the number of days you had possession of the Premises since the last billing period ended. Where required, we will use the actual submeter reading for your last month's charge. Your charge for utilities for the final month you occupy the Premises will, if available, be communicated to you and are payable by you prior to move-out. If the charges for the utilities are not available at the time you move out, they will be included on the Statement of Deposit Account that is created and sent to you after you move out.
9. We reserve the right, upon written notice to you, to change the billing method for any utility. We may be required to change the billing method or charge if, for example, the Premises contains submeters and the submeters are unable to be read, we elect to install submeters at the Community, we are required to modify the billing allocation method or formula as a result of legislative or legal requirements, or for other business reasons. By signing the Lease, you agree that we can do this.
10. We do not charge residents at the Community more than our actual or anticipated costs for the utilities that are allocated according to these methods, and, in some cases, if the actual bill for a utility in some months is significantly greater than the average bills for the utility, we may elect to calculate the residents' charges based on an amount that is less than the actual amount billed to the Community. If the Community's actual utility bill is for a billing period that is longer or shorter than our billing period (which is typically a calendar month), we may prorate the bill to reflect the number of days in our billing period.
11. You agree that it is impractical or extremely difficult to determine the exact amount of the utilities that you, your occupants and guests consume during the billing period and that the method used to determine your share of the Community's actual costs for the utility service, as described on the Term Sheet and in this Addendum, which may not reflect your actual usage, is fair and reasonable.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA REQUIREMENTS AND DISCLOSURES ADDENDUM

This District of Columbia Requirements and Disclosures Addendum ("Addendum") is dated and effective as of the date on the Residential Lease - Term Sheet (the "Term Sheet") to which this Addendum is attached and made a part of (the "Lease") and is made by and between Lessor and Resident for the Premises at the Community identified in the Lease.

Pursuant to Title 14 of the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations, we are required to provide you with notice of certain housing code provisions, as follows:

300 NOTICE TO TENANTS OF HOUSING CODE PROVISIONS

300.1 The owner of each habitation shall provide to each existing tenant, and shall at the commencement of any tenancy provide to the tenant, a copy of the provisions of this chapter and a copy of the following sections of chapter 1 of this subtitle:

- (a) Chapter 1, § 101 (Civil Enforcement Policy); and
- (b) Chapter 1, § 106 (Notification of Tenants Concerning Violations).

AUTHORITY: Unless otherwise noted, the authority for this chapter is contained at paragraphs 28 and 46 of section 7 of An Act Making appropriations to provide for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and three, and for other purposes ("Act of 1902"), Public, No. 218, 32 Stat. 590, approved July 1, 1902, as amended by: An Act approved July 1, 1932 to amend section 7 [of the Act of 1902], Public, No. 237, 47 Stat. 550; and An Act approved July 22, 1947, Public Law 215, 61 Stat. 402.

301 IMPLIED WARRANTY AND OTHER REMEDIES

301.1 There shall be deemed to be included in the terms of any lease or rental agreement covering a habitation an implied warranty that the owner will maintain the premises in compliance with this subtitle.

301.2 The rights, remedies, and duties set forth in this chapter shall not be deemed to be exclusive of one another unless expressly so declared or to preclude a court of law from determining that practices, acts, lease provisions and other matters not specifically dealt with in this chapter are contrary to public policy or unconscionable or otherwise unlawful.

302 VOIDING LEASE FOR VIOLATION OF REGULATIONS

302.1 The leasing of any habitation which, at the beginning of the tenancy, is unsafe or unsanitary due to violations of this subtitle in that habitation or in the common space of the premises (whether or not those violations are the subject of a notice issued under this subtitle) of which the owner has knowledge or reasonably should have knowledge, shall render void the lease or rental agreement for the habitation.

302.2 After the beginning of the tenancy, if the habitation becomes unsafe or unsanitary due to violations of this subtitle in that habitation or in the common space of the premises (whether or not the violations are the subject of a notice issued under this subtitle), the lease or rental agreement for the habitation shall be rendered void if both of the following apply:

(a) The violations did not result from the intentional acts or negligence of the tenant or his or her invitees; and

(b) The violations are not corrected within the time allowed for correction under a notice issued under this subtitle (or, if a notice has not been issued, within a reasonable time after the owner has knowledge or reasonably should have knowledge of the violations).

303 SIGNED COPIES OF AGREEMENTS AND APPLICATIONS

303.1 In each lease or rental of a habitation entered into after June 12, 1970, the owner shall provide to the tenant upon execution (or within seven (7) days after execution) an exact, legible, completed copy of any agreement or application which the tenant has signed.

303.2 This section shall not be subject to any notice requirement of this subtitle.

304 PROHIBITED WAIVER CLAUSES IN LEASE AGREEMENTS

304.1 Any provision of any lease or agreement contrary to, or providing for a waiver of, the terms of this chapter, or § 101 or § 106 of chapter 1, shall be void and unenforceable.

304.2 No person shall cause any of the provisions prohibited by this section to be included in a lease or agreement respecting the use of the property in the District of Columbia, or demand that any person sign a lease or agreement containing any such provision.

304.3 No owner shall cause to be placed in a lease or rental agreement any provision exempting the owner or premises from liability or limiting the liability of the owner or the residential premises from damages for injuries to persons or property caused by or resulting from the negligence of the owner (or the owner's agents, servants, or employees) in the operation, care, or maintenance of the leased premises, or any facility upon or portion of the property of which the leased premises are a part.

304.4 No owner shall place (or cause to be placed) in a lease or rental agreement a provision waiving the right of a tenant of residential premises to a jury trial, or requiring that the tenant pay the owner's court costs or legal fees, or authorizing a person other than the tenant to confess judgment against a tenant. This subsection shall not preclude a court from assessing court or legal fees against a tenant in appropriate circumstances.

304.5 The provisions of this section shall not be subject to any notice requirement of this subtitle.

305 INSPECTION OF PREMISES AFTER BREACH OF WARRANTY OR VOIDED LEASE

305.1 Following a judicial determination that the owner has breached the implied warranty of habitability applying to the premises (under § 301 of this chapter), or following a judicial determination that a lease or rental agreement is void, the owner shall obtain a certificate from the Director that the habitation is in compliance with this subtitle prior to the next reletting of the habitation.

306 WRITTEN RECEIPTS FOR PAYMENTS BY TENANT

306.1 In each lease or rental of a habitation, the owner shall provide written receipts for all monies paid to him or her by the tenant as rent, security, or otherwise, unless the payment is made by personal check.

306.2 Each receipt issued under this section shall state the following:

- (a) The exact amount received;
- (b) The date the monies are received; and
- (c) The purpose of the payment.

306.3 Each receipt shall also state any amounts still due which are attributable to late charges, court costs, or any other such charge in excess of rent.

306.4 If payment is made by personal check, and there is a balance still due which is attributable to late charges, court costs, or any other such charge in excess of rent, the owner shall provide a receipt stating the nature of the charges and the amount due.

306.5 The provisions of this section shall not be subject to any notice requirement of this subtitle.

307 PROHIBITION OF RETALIATORY ACTS AGAINST TENANTS

307.1 No action or proceeding to recover possession of a habitation may be brought against a tenant, nor shall an owner otherwise cause a tenant to quit a habitation involuntarily, in retaliation for any of the tenant's actions listed in § 307.3.

307.2 No demand for an increase in rent from the tenant, nor decrease in the services to which the tenant has been entitled, nor increase in the obligations of a tenant shall be made in retaliation against a tenant for any of the tenant's actions listed in § 307.3.

307.3 This section prohibits the taking of any of the actions set forth in this section in retaliation against the tenant for any of the following actions by a tenant:

- (a) A good faith complaint or report concerning housing deficiencies made to the owner or a governmental authority, directly by the tenant or through a tenant organization;
- (b) The good faith organization of a tenant organization or membership in a tenant organization;
- (c) The good faith assertion of rights under this subtitle, including rights under §§ 301 and 302 of this chapter, or § 101 of chapter 1.

308 SECURITY DEPOSITS

308.1 For purposes of this chapter, the term “security deposit” shall mean all monies paid to the owner by the tenant as a deposit or other payment made as security for performance of the tenant’s obligations in a lease or rental of the property.

308.2 On or after February 20, 1976, any security deposit or other payment required by an owner as security for performance of the tenant’s obligations in a lease or rental of a dwelling unit shall not exceed an amount equivalent to the first full month’s rent charged that tenant for the dwelling unit, and shall be charged only once by the owner to the tenant.

308.3 All monies paid to an owner by tenants for security deposits or other payment made as security for performance of the tenant’s obligations shall be deposited by the owner in an interest bearing escrow account established and held in trust in a financial institution in the District of Columbia insured by a federal or state agency for the sole purposes of holding such deposits or payments.

308.4 All monies held by an owner on February 20, 1976 for security deposits or other payments covered by this section shall be paid into an escrow account within thirty (30) days.

308.5 The owner of more than one residential building may establish one (1) escrow account for holding security deposits or other payments by the tenants of those buildings.

308.6 For each security deposit or other payment covered by this section, the owner shall clearly state in the lease or agreement or on the receipt for the deposit or other payment the terms and conditions under which the payment was made.

308.7 The housing provider shall post in the lobby of the building and rental office at the end of each calendar year, the following information: Where the tenants’ security deposits are held and what the prevailing rate was for each six-month (6) period over the past year. At the end of a tenant’s tenancy, the housing provider shall list for the tenant the interest rate for each six month period during the tenancy.

308.8 The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to Federal or District of Columbia agencies’ dwelling units leased in the District of Columbia or to units for which rents are Federally subsidized.

309 REPAYMENT OF SECURITY DEPOSITS TO TENANTS

309.1 Within forty-five (45) days after the termination of the tenancy, the owner shall do one of the following:

(a) Tender payment to the tenant, without demand, any security deposit and any similar payment paid by the tenant as a condition of tenancy in addition to the stipulated rent, and any interest due the tenant on that deposit or payment as provided in § 311; or

(b) Notify the tenant in writing, to be delivered to the tenant personally or by certified mail at the tenant’s last known address, of the owner’s intention to withhold and apply the monies toward defraying the cost of expenses properly incurred under the terms and conditions of the security deposit agreement.

309.2 The owner, within thirty (30) days after notification to the tenant pursuant to the requirement of § 309.1(b), shall tender a refund of the balance of the deposit or payment, including interest not used to defray such expenses, and at the same time give the tenant an itemized statement of the repairs and other uses to which the monies were applied and the cost of each repair or other use.

309.3 Failure by the owner to comply with § 309.1 and § 309.2 of this section shall constitute prima facie evidence that the tenant is entitled to full return, including interest as provided in § 311, of any deposit or other payment made by the tenant as security for performance of his or her obligations or as a condition of tenancy, in addition to the stipulated rent.

309.4 Failure by the owner to serve the tenant personally or by certified mail, after good faith effort to do so, shall not constitute a failure by the owner to comply with § 309.1 and

309.5 Any housing provider violating the provisions of this chapter by failing to return a security deposit rightfully owed to a tenant in accordance with the requirements of this chapter shall be liable for the amount of the deposit withheld, or in the event of bad faith, for treble that amount.

309.6 For the purposes of § 309.5, the term “bad faith” means any frivolous or unfounded refusal to return a security deposit, as required by law, that is motivated by a fraudulent, deceptive, misleading, dishonest, or unreasonably self-serving purpose and not by simple negligence, bad judgment, or an honest belief in the course of action taken.

310 RETURN OF SECURITY DEPOSIT: INSPECTION OF PREMISES

310.1 In order to determine the amount of the security deposit or other payment to be returned to the tenant, the owner may inspect the dwelling unit within three (3) days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, before or after the termination of the tenancy.

310.2 The owner shall conduct the inspection, if the inspection is to be conducted, at the time and place of which notice is given to the tenant.

310.3 The owner shall notify the tenant in writing of the time and date of the inspection.

310.4 The notice of inspection shall be delivered to the tenant, or at the dwelling unit in question, at least ten (10) days before the date of the intended inspection.

311 INTEREST ON SECURITY DEPOSIT ESCROW ACCOUNTS

311.1 The interest in the escrow account described in § 309 on all money paid by the tenant prior to or during the tenancy as a security deposit, decorating fee, or similar deposit or fee, shall commence on the date the money is actually paid by the tenant, or within thirty (30) days after February 20, 1976, whichever is later, and shall accrue at the passbook rate then prevailing on January 1st and on July 1st for each six (6) month period (or part thereof) of the tenancy which follows those dates. On those dates, the passbook rate in the District of Columbia financial institution in which the escrow account is held shall be used.

311.2 Interest on an escrow account shall be due and payable by the owner to the tenant upon termination of any tenancy of a duration of twelve (12) months or more, unless an amount is deducted under procedures set forth in § 309.

311.3 Except in cases where no interest is paid to the tenant as provided in § 311.2, no interest or other consideration shall inure to the benefit of the owner by reason of the owner's control over the escrow account nor shall the account be assigned or used as security for loans.

311.4 It is the intent of this section that the account referred to in this section and § 309 shall be used solely for the purpose of securing the lessees' performance under the lease.

311.5 This section and § 309 and § 310 shall not be subject to the notice requirements of any other section of this subtitle.

312 - 314 [RESERVED]

315 NOTIFICATION REQUIRED

315.1 Prior to the acceptance of a nonrefundable application fee or security deposit, the owner of the habitation shall provide written notice of any requests that are pending for an adjustment in the rent ceiling of the habitation, as the adjustments are specifically enumerated in section 207 of the Rental Housing Act of 1985, D.C. Law 6-10, D.C. Official Code § 42-3502.07 (2001).

315.2 The notification shall include the current rent ceiling, the new rent ceiling requested in the petition, the petition filing date and petition number, and the nature of any repairs or rehabilitation planned in the dwelling unit as part of the petition.

315.3 A violation of this section shall be a Class 2 civil infraction pursuant to Titles I-III of the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs Infractions Act of 1985. Adjudication of any infraction of this article shall be pursuant to titles I-III of the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs Civil Infractions Act of 1985.

399 DEFINITIONS

399.1 The provisions of section 199 of chapter 1 of this title and the definitions set forth in that section shall be applicable to this chapter.

101 CIVIL ENFORCEMENT POLICY

101.1 The maintenance of leased or rental habitations in violation of the provisions of this subtitle, where those violations constitute a danger to the health, welfare, or safety of the occupants, is declared to be a public nuisance.

101.2 The abatement of the public nuisances referred to in subsection 101.1 by criminal prosecution or by compulsory repair, condemnation, and demolition alone has been and continues to be inadequate.

101.3 The public nuisances referred to in subsection 101.1 additionally cause specific, immediate, irreparable and continuing harm to the occupants of these habitations.

101.4 The public nuisances referred to in subsection 101.1 damage the quality of life and the mental development and well-being of the occupants, as well as their physical health and personal property, and this harm cannot be fully compensated for by an action for damages, rescission or equitable set-off for the reduction in rental value of the premises.

101.5 It is the purpose of this section to declare expressly a public policy in favor of speedy abatement of the public nuisances referred to in subsection 101.1, if necessary, by preliminary and permanent injunction issued by Courts of competent jurisdiction.

106 NOTIFICATION OF TENANTS CONCERNING VIOLATIONS

106.1 After an inspection of a habitation, the Director shall provide the tenant of the habitation a copy of any notification with respect to that habitation issued to the owner pursuant to this subtitle.

106.2 The notification to the tenant shall state plainly and conspicuously that it is only for the tenant's information; provided, that if the notice places duties on the tenant, it shall state those duties.

106.3 In any instance where a violation of this subtitle directly involves more than one habitation, the Director shall post a copy of any notification issued to the owner pursuant to this chapter for a reasonable time in one or more locations within the building or buildings in which the deficiency exists. The locations for posting the notification shall be reasonably selected to give notice to all tenants affected.

106.4 No person shall alter, modify, destroy, or otherwise tamper with or mutilate a notification posted under this section.

106.5 Any tenant directly affected by the violation(s) shall, upon request to the Director, be sent a copy of the posted notification.

106.6 This section shall not be subject to any notice requirement of this subtitle.

SMOKE-FREE LEASE ADDENDUM

This Smoke Free Lease Addendum ("Addendum") is dated and effective as of the date on the Residential Lease - Term Sheet (the "Term Sheet") to which this Addendum is attached and made a part of ("the Lease") and is made by and between Lessor and Resident for the Premises at the Community identified in the Lease.

You acknowledge that the building in which the Premises is located, and the Community as a whole, are smoke-free living environments. You and all of your occupants and guests are prohibited from smoking anywhere in the interior or exterior of the Premises (including balconies and patios), within twenty-five feet of any building entrance, outdoor air intake and/or operable window, or anywhere else in the Community. This policy is intended to benefit all residents of the Community. You are responsible for any violation of this non-smoking policy by you, or any of your occupants or guests.

You understand that we will take reasonable steps to enforce the smoke-free terms of the Lease and to make the Community a smoke-free environment. However, because our ability to police, monitor or enforce the terms of this Addendum is dependent on the full cooperation of all residents, occupants and guests throughout the Community, we cannot guarantee that the Premises or the Community will be totally free from secondhand smoke.

If you or any of your occupants and guests violate the terms of this Addendum, such violation will be deemed a material default under the terms of the Lease, and we will be entitled to exercise all rights and remedies at law or in equity, consistent with the provisions of the Default Remedies paragraph in the Lease.

RENT PAYMENT ADDENDUM

This Rent Payment Addendum ("Addendum") is dated and effective as of the date on the Residential Lease - Term Sheet (the "Term Sheet") to which this Addendum is attached and made a part of ("the Lease") and is made by and between Lessor and Resident for the Premises at the Community identified in the Lease.

Notwithstanding any provisions in the Lease to the contrary, this Community does not accept payments for rent and other charges in the management office. We make a number of alternative payment options available to our residents, and, currently, each resident at the Community is required to use one of these alternative methods, as follows:

Online Banking Electronic Payments

You may use your online banking bill pay service to pay your rent and other charges. You may schedule your payment to be sent from your bank account by following these steps:

- On your bank's bill pay website, select the option to set up a manual payee (process varies by bank).
- Enter the Community's remittance address, as follows:
Equity Residential
P.O. Box 1406
Augusta, GA 30903
- Enter your resident account number (you can find your resident account number on our resident website, My.EquityApartments.com, or by calling the management office). Using this number on all payments to us will help to ensure timely delivery. Your resident account with us will not be credited until the payment is received in our account.
- The first time you establish the Community as a payee, allow 5 business days for your payment to be delivered. Once the electronic connection has been established, you will be able to schedule your payment closer to the due date (usually 2 business days).
- All policies set forth by your bank's bill pay service will apply.

My.EquityApartments.com

You can submit and authorize your electronic payments via this resident website. With the single payment option, you can submit your payment each month and your resident account will be temporarily credited while the debit clears your bank account. You can also sign up for recurring payments, wherein we will debit your checking account for your open balance automatically, once each month.

Telephone Payments

You can pay your rent and other charges over the telephone with a credit card. Instructions for making a payment over the telephone are available at My.EquityApartments.com.

If you have questions about how to use any of these rent payment options, you should contact the management office.

SUPPLEMENTAL UTILITIES ADDENDUM
(High-Rise Central Systems)

This Supplemental Utilities Addendum ("Supplemental Addendum") is dated as of the date on the Residential Lease – Term Sheet (the "Term Sheet") and the Utilities Addendum ("Addendum") to which this Supplemental Addendum is attached and made a part of (the "Lease") and is made by and between Lessor and Resident for the Premises at the Community identified in the Lease.

The Community is served by a central plant that provides residents with heating, cooling, and domestic hot water. This central plant consists of a cooling tower that provides cooling in the summer, closed loop boilers that provide heat in the winter, and domestic boilers that provide hot water year round. Your Premises has a heat pump, which connects to this system and is activated by a thermostat in the Premises.

You acknowledge that the Term Sheet indicates that you are responsible for paying for the Central Boiler charges that will be reflected in the bill you receive from our billing vendor. However, the utility designated as Central Boiler on the Term Sheet should, instead, be designated as "Heating/Cooling/Domestic Hot Water." The charges for Heating/Cooling/Domestic Hot Water will be allocated based on each apartment's square footage and the number of occupants to account for the operation of the central plant that provides all residents with heat and domestic hot water, as well as the operation of the cooling towers and/or chiller, and other components of the heating/cooling system. The charges will be calculated using the monthly expenses of the Community for gas, electricity, and the operation of the central plant.

The provisions of the Addendum related to utilities are hereby incorporated in this Supplemental Addendum.

FALL PREVENTION ADDENDUM (National)

This Fall Prevention Addendum (“Addendum”) is dated and effective as of the date on the Residential Lease - Term Sheet (the “Term Sheet”) to which this Addendum is attached and made a part of (the “Lease”) and is made by and between Lessor and Resident for the Premises at the Community identified in the Lease.

The safety of our residents and their guests is very important to us. Windows and balconies, while providing views, sunlight and fresh air, can present a danger to those who may not readily perceive certain risks. Falls from balconies or open windows can be fatal. Children and adults with diminished capacity to understand this danger are particularly at risk. Please understand that window screens are not designed to keep people in; they are designed to keep insects out. Additionally, objects placed near balcony railings and under windows can create a climbing hazard. Information regarding child safety can be found at websites such as www.safekids.org, www.cpsc.gov, and www.nsc.org.

To the extent children and/or adults with diminished capacity to perceive risks live with you or are your guests, please consider installing appropriate childproofing devices such as locks for doors leading out to balconies and devices that limit how far your windows can open. If you elect to install childproofing devices, you may do so at your expense upon notifying us. You are required to remove such devices when you vacate your apartment home and are responsible for any damage caused by such installation or removal.

Note that installation of these devices is not a substitute for proper supervision of children and adults with diminished capacity to perceive the risks.

Any term that is capitalized but not defined in this Addendum that is capitalized and defined in the Lease shall have the same meaning for purposes of this Addendum as it has for purposes of the Lease.

CONDOMINIUM STATUS ADDENDUM
(District of Columbia Only)

This Condominium Status Addendum ("Addendum") is dated and effective as of the date on the Residential Lease - Term Sheet (the "Term Sheet") to which this Addendum is attached and made a part of ("the Lease") and is made by and between Lessor and Resident for the Premises at the Community identified in the Lease.

You acknowledge that, prior to entering into this Lease or any subsequent or renewal lease at the Community, and prior to any occupancy of the Premises, you were advised that the Community/Building in which the Premises is located is registered with the District of Columbia as a condominium (the "Condominium") and that the Premises and this Lease will become subject to a Condominium Declaration and Condominium Bylaws if those Condominium instruments are recorded. The Condominium instruments may, at our election at any time, be recorded among the Land Records of the District of Columbia and the Office of the Surveyor, as applicable. The Premises and this Lease also shall be subject to such rules and regulations as may in the future be adopted from time to time by the Condominium ("Condominium Rules and Regulations"). You agree that the tenancy created hereunder is subject to the following additional provisions: upon the recording of the Condominium instruments and notice to you, you will abide by all of the obligations, covenants and restrictions contained in the Condominium instruments (except for the payment of assessments and other monetary obligations that are required of unit owners in the Condominium) and with the Condominium Rules and Regulations, all as may be amended from time to time. Any violation by you of said obligations, covenants, restrictions, or your failure to comply with any adopted Condominium Rules and Regulations, shall be deemed a default under this Lease. You hereby permit us and any successor landlord, and our respective agents, to proceed directly against you for any such violation, including, without limitation, the rights granted to landlord under the provisions of the Default Remedies paragraph in the lease.

PET/ANIMAL ADDENDUM

This Pet/Animal Addendum ("Addendum") is dated and effective as of the date on the Residential Lease - Term Sheet (the "Term Sheet") to which this Addendum is attached and made a part of ("the Lease") and is made by and between Lessor and Resident for the Premises at the Community identified in the Lease.

No animals are permitted at the premises at any time without our specific written permission and payment of all the applicable pet fees and deposits, including visiting animals.

We may, at our discretion, deny any animal if we believe it to be a threat to others. American Pit Bull Terrier, American Bully, American Staffordshire Terrier, Staffordshire Bull Terrier or any dogs that are cross breeds of or are related to such breeds are not permitted, unless prohibited by law. At our discretion, you may be required to have a licensed veterinarian verify your animal's weight and breed. We may also request a photograph of your animal for your resident file. Wild (not domesticated) animals and hybrids of wild animals, including wolf and coyote hybrids, are also prohibited, as are monkeys, snakes, ferrets, rabbits, pot belly pigs, and miniature horses.

You certify that, to the best of your knowledge, your animal is not dangerous or potentially dangerous and has not inflicted injury on or bitten a human or domestic animal, chased or approached a person upon the streets, sidewalks or any public grounds in a menacing fashion or apparent attitude of attack, nor does your animal have a tendency or disposition to attack unprovoked, to cause injury or otherwise threaten the safety of humans or domestic animals.

Your animal must be on a leash and under your control at all times when walking through the lobby of the building and throughout all other common areas in the building and in the community, including hallways, elevators and parking areas. Never leave your animal on the balcony or patio unsupervised or while you are away. If, at any time, we believe your animal is annoying, bothersome, a nuisance, or a threat to any person or animal, we may require you to remove it from the community. Your animal must be current on their vaccinations and have all required licenses and tags. You are required to comply with any local Sanitation and Health Department ordinance that prohibits animals in the pool area.

You are responsible for all costs we incur to repair damage, remove odors or treat for pests such as fleas and ticks. Any damage caused by your animal, including personal injury, or property damage either in the Premises or anywhere in the Community, is your responsibility. You agree to indemnify and hold Lessor harmless from and against any and all damages, claims, causes of action, liabilities, injuries suffered by persons, or damage to property of any kind, whatsoever, which arise out of, or are caused by your animal and any errors, omissions, or negligence in the supervision of your animal; including without limitation, injuries caused by the animal, bites and diseases caused or carried by the animal.

You are required to immediately pick up and properly dispose of all animal waste. Allowing an animal to relieve itself on a balcony or patio is strictly prohibited.

If the Community currently participates in a Dog Identification Program, or implements this program in the future, you agree to register your dog's DNA with the Community's leasing office prior to moving in, within ten days of acquiring a dog or within thirty days of the inception of a new program. And, you agree to pay any costs associated with registering your dog's DNA, where applicable. A DNA sample will be obtained by swabbing the inside of the dog's cheek. The sample will then be submitted to a lab for analysis and the resulting DNA profile will be registered with the DNA Registry. All un-scooped waste found on the Community grounds will be analyzed for DNA and, once the dog is identified, the owner of the dog will be charged for all costs related to clean-up and testing. Estimated costs are around $100 per incident, vary by location and are subject to change at any time.

You understand and acknowledge that you may be required to permanently remove your animal from the Premises if you do not comply with your responsibilities listed in this Agreement, including, but not limited to, failing to register your dog's DNA. Any continued non-compliance with the requirements of this Agreement will be deemed a material default under the terms of the Lease and we will exercise all rights and remedies at law or in equity, consistent with the provisions of the Default Remedies paragraph in the Lease.
